We live in a pluralistic society with many conflicting beliefs and values. As a teacher your students may ask you specific questions about controversial issues. Your answers will come from your personal convictions. We need to know the views of those that would be Christian role models for our children. Please share your personal convictions as a Christian toward:

wine, beer, and other alcoholic beverages - smoking and chewing tobacco - marijuana and other non-prescription drugs -

entertainment (music/dancing)

pre-marital sex -

divorce and remarriage -

abortion -

homosexuality -

personal debt -

gossip, -

lying -

cheating -

membership in secret societies (Masonic Lodge, Eastern Star, etc.)-

Do you have a personal testimony regarding any of the above items that you would like to share?

C. ADDITIONAL ESSAY QUESTIONS

On separate paper, please label and succinctly answer in one or two paragraphs each of the questions below.

- A. You have read our Statement of Faith. Do you strongly hold any doctrines that are not on that statement? [e.g., instrumental music should not be a part of a worship service, you should not eat pork, etc.] If yes, please list and describe.

- B. Frequently Christian schools enroll children from more than one evangelical denomination. How would you handle a child's question if you knew that it was theologically controversial and the family's church held to a different viewpoint than your own?

- C. How well do you feel that you get along with your peers?

- D. Have you ever led a child or youth to Christ?

- E. If married, please have your spouse state his/her feelings about your teaching in a Christian school.
